“ My grandson he love singing, dancing, and rapping like his dad. Everytime I see him he's smiling and joking with his brother, Nana (Me) and his mom and dad. He's family love the way he keeps everyone laughing. I will miss my baby boy.

“ I remember when I use to mimic you just so I could hear you say, "Stop coughing off to me!" or when you would take all the shoes out of the big football just to play in it! I am missing you dearly and this is tearing me apart. It truly wasn't your time yet and I know they say God doesn't make mistakes..... I love you nephew. Forever and always. #ManManStrong
